Forest Economy Educational Connections

Issue Date: November 18, 2021

Closing Date: December 17, 2021

Part 1. Background

Overview & Project Scope of Work

1.1 Overview

The forest products industry has a long and proud heritage in Maine and remains a significant economic driver in the state's economy. Technology, globalization, and evolving sustainability trends are bringing change and new opportunities to Maine's traditional forest economy. As global markets shift, new ideas and strategies are needed to keep Maine's forest economy strong and ensure the state's rural communities prosper.

We are a broad coalition of forest industry leaders, the Maine Department of Economic & Community Development, the University of Maine, Maine communities, trade associations, and economic development organizations, working together to develop and implement a long-term Vision & Roadmap for Maine's forest products sector. In addition to industry partners, our collaborative group includes:

- Maine Forest Products Council
- State of Maine Department of Economic & Community Development
- Maine Development Foundation
- University of Maine
- Professional Logging Contractors of Maine
- Maine Woodland Owners
- Maine Technology Institute
- Biobased Maine
- Maine Forest Service

This coalition, called Forest Opportunity Roadmap (FOR/Maine) is working together to develop and implement a shared long-term vision for the sector by identifying the most promising opportunities to pursue and key obstacles to overcome to develop greater economic prosperity in the forest products sector across the State.

The Maine Forest Products Council (MFPC) has been awarded a federal grant from the U.S. Department of Commerce's Economic Development Administration for the project.

1.2 Industry Background

The forest product sector (FPS) is a core industrial driver of Maine's economies and provides good jobs for over 13,000 workers across the state. The sector continues to undergo transition in its traditional industry base, while new technologies and opportunities are emerging leading the path for future growth in the sector.

A critical enabler of growth is the availability of a workforce with the necessary skills and knowledge to accommodate labor demands of existing and emerging industries. In 2019, FOR/ME established a workforce subcommittee tasked with providing the necessary knowledge to develop a comprehensive workforce strategy that supports long-term competitiveness and growth in Maine’s forest product sector and achieves the goals of the broader FOR/ME initiative. This strategy was completed in July of 2021, and can be viewed here. The next step for the committee’s work is to develop an implementation plan based on the recommendations of the strategy.

1.3 Purpose of the RFP

FOR/Maine is interested deepening existing place-based efforts to engage K-12 students, rural communities, and industry partners in developing educational connections to forest economy topics and subjects, with the goal of spurring interest among youth in a career in forest products in Maine. This work is related to implementing recommendations from FOR/Maine’s Workforce Strategy, developed by the Center for Business and Economic Research at the University of Southern Maine.

FOR/Maine is seeking to partner with an organization or coalition of organizations actively engaged in forest economy education to identify and improve existing resources, deepen industry, community and forest economy educational connections, support educators and learners, and convene advisors for ongoing coordination and oversight.

1.4 Project Scope

I. Identify & Improve Existing Resources

- Assess existing forest based educational curriculum and resources currently available or in use by educators in Maine. If possible, recommend adaption of materials to ensure conformity with Maine Learning Results Standards and/or improve materials for ease of adoption by educators.
- Identify areas where added resources are necessary to fill gaps.
- Recommend methods for access to materials by educators.

II. Deepen Community and Forest Economy Educational Connections

- Identify 3-5 target school districts, without current adaptation of forestry curricula, for development of forest based educational projects.
- Conduct outreach and engagement with target communities, educators, and industry to assess interest in forest economy educational connections in specific schools.
- Engage industry and community leaders to better understand the need for educational connections between forest industry and schools. This may include use of surveying, focus group and/or community meetings.
- Conduct readiness work in each of the communities to prepare educators, community, and industry for integration of forest economy themes.

- In partnership with participating communities, select 1-2 communities in which to scale up and fully integrate forest economy programming.
